

2027 Housing + Health Integration Summit

Advancing Whole-Person Care through Housing - Collaboration Among Housing, Healthcare, Finance, and Policy Leaders to Improve Health Outcomes, Expand Access, and Build Healthier Communities

January 14 – 15, 2027 • Caesars Palace Hotel • Las Vegas, NV

Overview

The 2027 Housing + Health Integration Summit brings together leaders from healthcare, housing, government, finance, and community organizations to explore how cross-sector collaboration can improve health outcomes and create stronger, more resilient communities. As housing continues to be recognized as a critical driver of health, this summit will examine innovative strategies, policy developments, financing models, and real-world partnerships that are transforming the way care and housing intersect.

Attendees will gain practical insights from healthcare executives, housing developers, managed care organizations, government agencies, policymakers, community health centers, nonprofit leaders, and industry innovators through thought-provoking keynote presentations, interactive panel discussions, and case studies highlighting successful integrated housing and health initiatives. Whether you're shaping policy, financing developments, delivering care, or expanding community services, this summit offers a unique opportunity to connect with cross-sector leaders, discover innovative solutions, and help define the future of housing and healthcare integration.
